Professional assets in data science careers

1. What are three of your biggest professional assets that are not technical data science skills?

2. What three non-technical skills or attributes are you most interested in developing?

3. How are you planning to start developing these skills?

4. What recommendations do you have to improve this workshop?